MESSAGE TO THE GRADUATES

Cale Holman, MS, MBA

Acting President, Strayer University

To the Strayer University Graduating Class of 2020:

This year the entire world learned that things don't always go according to plan. Life puts obstacles and difficulties in our way.

But that lesson isn't new to you. To reach this day, you had to overcome challenges in your own lives. You had to make trade-offs. You had to make short-term sacrifices in pursuit of long-term goals. You had to adapt and adjust in real time—while keeping your eyes on the future.

Those abilities will serve you well. Especially in uncertain times, the world needs people who can commit to something and see it through; confront difficult problems and offer new solutions; and persevere when things get difficult. In completing your degree at Strayer University, you've done that and more.

All of us at Strayer are proud of you. We are honored to celebrate with you today. And we eagerly look forward to what you will accomplish in the future.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of Strayer University, congratulations to our graduates.

Best wishes,

Charlotte F. Beason, Ed.D.

Chair, Strayer University Board of Trustees

To the Strayer University Graduating Class of 2020:

On behalf of the Strayer University Board of Trustees, congratulations to our graduates.

My colleagues and I are honored to share this day of celebration with you. We extend a special welcome to the family, friends, and loved as well. Your support of your graduates has helped make this day possible.

Graduates, you have reached this milestone because you knew you were capable of more—knew that you could do more in your career, provide more for your family, contribute more to your organization or your community, and be more of an example for your children. You made a commitment to yourself and made the important decision to grow your skills, increase your knowledge, and gain new perspective. You took action and you followed through—often despite difficult circumstances, obstacles, and challenges.

All of us at Strayer are proud of what you have accomplished, and we are honored to celebrate with you. When you leave here today, you will take along our fondest hopes and best wishes for your future.

Enjoy today. Celebrate with your loved ones. Reflect on what you have already achieved and what is yet to come. And please stay in touch—we are eager to hear about your successes from this day forward.

Congratulations!

Best regards,

Charlotte F. Beason, Ed.D.

Building America's Workforce Through Education

For 128 years, Strayer has operated at the forefront of educational innovation, anticipating the skills and training that professionals need to succeed as markets evolve. Our history of preparing students to tackle tomorrow's challenges remains our mission far into the future.

1892 Dr. S. Irving Strayer opens Strayer's Business College in Baltimore, Md.

The school helps adults acquire relevant business skills to enter and succeed in a rapidly expanding post-Industrial job market.

1904 The school's popularity leads to a second location in Washington, D.C.

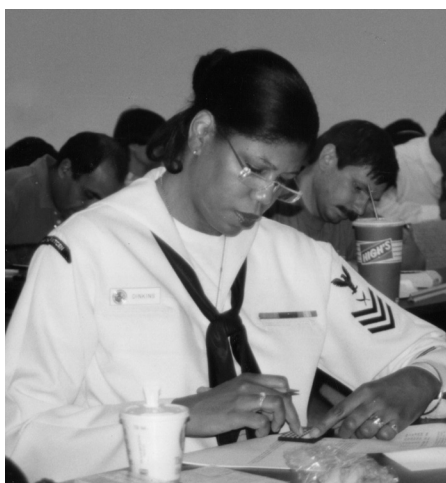

Dr. Strayer opens a campus at the corner of 9th and F Streets, N.W. The campus eventually became the cornerstone of Strayer University and started with just two teachers on staff.

1913 As the accounting field grows, Strayer helps students take advantage of new opportunities.

The passage of Federal income tax laws and the post-war boom leads Strayer to establish its College of Accountancy, graduating qualified professionals to work in the field.

1920 Women win the right to vote.

Strayer – which had been educating women since its founding – prepares them for roles as clerks, librarians and secretaries.

1945 The G.I. bill is established, providing higher education benefits to veterans.

To this day, Strayer proudly services veterans and active duty members of the U.S. military, providing support and flexibility that service members need to achieve their goals.

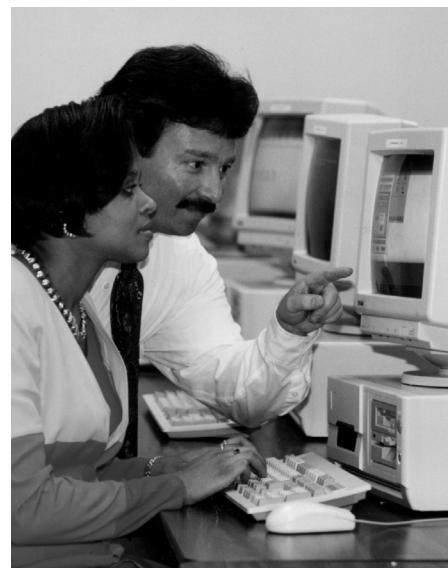

1969 Technology proliferates, and Strayer expands. The appetite for higher education grows as technology takes off. Strayer adds new offerings and is licensed to grant the Bachelor of Science degree, becoming Strayer College.

1996 Strayer launches a groundbreaking online learning program. The dot com boom drastically changes the business landscape. Strayer is among the first accredited, higher-learning institutions to offer courses via the Internet. Two years later, Strayer College is granted university status and becomes Strayer University.

2012 Strayer partners with business legend Jack Welch to offer an executive MBA program. The Jack Welch Management Institute is home to a Top 25 Princeton Review-ranked executive MBA program, infused with the expertise of Jack Welch.

2016 Story-driven content emerges as a business trend with staying power. Strayer Studios, an in-house creative team, develops immersive, compelling films around business fundamentals and course content. The films deepen students' engagement with their coursework and improve learning outcomes.

2018 Strayer opens its first café-style hybrid campus in Macon, Ga. The new campus style allows students the in-person support they need while also providing select classes, academic advising, and a place for students to network and unwind. Finding success with this approach, Strayer has since opened additional café-style campuses across the country.

Today's ceremony also celebrates graduates of the top-ranked Jack Welch Management Institute at Strayer University (JWMI). JWMI is widely regarded as one of the best online M.B.A. programs in the world, as ranked by Princeton Review, Poets & Quants, Top MBA and CEO Magazine.

JWMI students have the unique opportunity to learn timeless, real-world management lessons created by Jack Welch. Named "Manager of the Century" by Fortune magazine and coined "The CEO of CEOs" in Forbes' 100 Greatest Business Minds feature, Jack was one of the world's most respected and celebrated CEOs. Jack Welch left a legacy built on his unmatched track record of success, enormous love of people, fierce passion for winning, and unbridled desire to change the world for the better. Using his proven management practices as a blueprint, JWMI students learn how to win in business. His legacy is carried on by the over 2,000 JWMI students and 2,200 alumni in companies in every industry and across the world.

The Institute's online leadership education offerings include an M.B.A. degree, graduate certificates and executive certificates.

Throughout their course of study, graduates learned relevant, actionable material rooted in Mr. Welch's and other business experts' management principles. They mastered critical business concepts in areas ranging from people management and leadership, to strategy, marketing and finance.

YOUR ALUMNI EXPERIENCE STARTS HERE

This is your story, too. And it doesn't end after graduation.

Strayer University's Office of Alumni Affairs works to engage all Strayer alumni throughout their lives. We design and deliver programs, services, activities and publications that support Strayer alumni in their careers and their personal lives, as well as in their communities.

Our mission is to:

Foster/support a network that connects alumni to one another and to Strayer University

Establish professional/educational connections between alumni and current students

Build out and support alumni chapters

Develop mentor programs

Create/encourage networking relationships

Promote a positive image of the university and its students

Honor/recognize alumni service leadership in the community

Volunteer participation is free and open to all Strayer graduates who have been awarded a degree, diploma or certificate.

Kyle Lashlee

Master of Science in Human Resource Management, 2020

The first in his family to earn a college degree, Kyle Lashlee views education as a foundation for success. His hardworking parents encouraged him to pursue higher education. “I chose to take that opportunity and run with it,” he says.

After earning a bachelor’s degree and working in auto sales, he soon realized that—whether he wanted a promotion or a new job—further education was the way forward. “I needed to go back to school to give myself an advantage.”

Mr. Lashlee’s employer offered tuition assistance at Strayer University, so he went for it. He knew right away that he’d made the right choice. But that didn’t mean it was easy.

“It was pretty hectic. When I had a break, I would work on school. When I got home, I worked on papers.” He completed his human resources degree in just 18 months, while working 60-hour weeks.

Why HR? “I’m a really big people person,” he says. “I have no problem talking to anyone, and getting on their level.” And with newfound business acumen from his Strayer studies, he gained a broader perspective: “I can look at something not only from an employee’s point of view, but also from the board of directors’ point of view.”

Today, Mr. Lashlee works in sales for a multinational corporation. He sees it as a launching pad—maybe to management or to a position in human resources, where he can put his master’s degree to work. In the next 5–10 years, he hopes to become an HR department manager or vice president.

Now that Mr. Lashlee is on a strong path to promotion, he wants others to have the confidence to take that next step, too. “It’s hard work; it’s not impossible work,” he says. “You just have to put your elbow grease into it.”

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Debra Lee

Chairman & CEO Emeritus of BET Networks; Philanthropist

Honored as one of the most powerful women in the media and entertainment industries, Debra Lee led BET Networks to become the largest global company dedicated to African-American programming. She blazed new trails as one of America's rare African-American female CEOs, growing BET's brand presence from a network known mostly for music videos to a ratings record-breaker serving a demographic with more than $1.3 trillion in buying power. By her retirement in 2018, BET reached 100 million homes globally. Lee defined the network's brand mission and increased investment in authentic programming that resonates with Black audiences. During three decades in leadership roles, Lee saw BET become the first African-American company to be traded on the New York Stock Exchange and be acquired by media giant Viacom for $3 billion in 2001. Today, BET is the leading provider of entertainment not only for the African-American audience, but for consumers of Black culture worldwide.

Ms. Lee's barrier-breaking journey to the corner office and the ranks of industry power players is as inspiring as her many achievements. Raised in the segregated South, she went on to Brown University and Harvard, earning both a J.D. from Harvard Law School and an M.A. in public policy from the John F. Kennedy School of Government. After clerking for a federal judge and working at a corporate law firm, Lee joined BET in 1986 as Vice President and General Counsel. Ten years later, she was named President and COO. In 2005, Lee was elevated to Chairman and CEO, replacing the network's founder, Robert L. Johnson. Now Chairman & CEO Emeritus of BET, she is active as a board member, philanthropist, keynote speaker and champion of diversity and women's leadership.

Ms. Lee currently serves as a board member for several corporate and non-profit organizations including the Recording Academy, Twitter, Marriott, The Alvin Ailey Dance Company, American Film Institute and Paley Center. Since 2010, she has organized Leading Women Defined Summit, an annual invitation-only gathering of the most prominent African-American women, which have included luminaries such as First Lady Michelle Obama and Senator Kamala Harris.

Ms. Lee is regarded as one of America's most respected business executives. Her many honors and recognitions include being named one of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Most Powerful Women in Entertainment, Billboard's Power 100 and Adweek's Disruptors list. She is the first and only woman to receive the Grammy's Salute to Industry Icons Award on behalf of her contributions to American music and culture. She is a recipient of the EBONY Power 100's Chairman's Award and the National Cable & Telecommunications Association's Leadership Vanguard Award. American music and culture. She is a recipient of the EBONY Power 100's Chairman's Award and the National Cable & Telecommunications Association's Leadership Vanguard Award.
